EXPERIENCE

Senior Investigator

August 2005 – present

The Nine/Eleven Finding Answers (NEFA) Foundation, New York, NY

- The NEFA Foundation is a non-profit organization created after the attacks of September 11, 2001. The Foundation strives to help prevent future tragedies in the U.S. and abroad by independently tracking those responsible for planning, funding, and executing terrorist activities, with a particular emphasis on Islamic militant organizations. The Foundation plays a role in the fight against terror through cohesive and comprehensive efforts to research, analyze, and disseminate information pertaining to past and current terrorist activities.

On-Air Terrorism Analyst

October 2004 – present

NBC News / MSNBC, New York, NY

- NBC News is the news division of the U.S. television network NBC Universal. It has ranked as the top-rated broadcast news division in the United States for over ten years. MSNBC is NBC Universal's 24-hour cable news and information network. Provided frequent on-air analysis and discussion regarding ongoing news stories relating to international terrorism. Assisted in the production of both evening news segments and full-length television documentaries relating to international terrorism.

Founder, President

February 2004 – present

Globalterroralert.com, New York, NY

- Globalterroralert.com was founded in early 2004 as an exclusive information clearinghouse on international terrorism. Globalterroralert.com is regularly cited as a source by prominent worldwide media outlets—including NBC News, the BBC, the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, and the Associated Press.
- Researched terrorist fundraising and recruitment networks using sources including declassified intelligence documents, exhibits submitted in terror-related legal cases, Lexis-Nexis, the World Wide Web, the Foreign Broadcast Information Service (FBIS), and other information retrieval sources. Interviewed alleged terrorist recruiters, terrorist facilitators, and cooperating defendants in criminal cases. Drafted public news articles and unclassified memoranda for international law enforcement and intelligence agencies examining international terrorism, its sponsors, and its causes.

Consultant

May 2005 – June 2005

Office of the High Representative (OHR), Sarajevo, Bosnia-Herzegovina

- The OHR is the chief civilian peace implementation agency in Bosnia-Herzegovina. I was hired as a short-term consultant by OHR to personally travel to Sarajevo and give briefings to intelligence analysts based at Camp Butmir on the status of foreign mujahideen veterans in the Balkans and the ongoing role of foreign charitable organizations. Assisted in the analysis of confidential intelligence documents, and provided original documentation to add to their records. Gathered firsthand intelligence data in various regions of central Bosnia-Herzegovina concerning suspect corporate entities under criminal investigation by local authorities.

Senior Terrorism Consultant

February 1998 – January 2004

Investigative Project, Washington, DC

- The Investigative Project is an open source counterterrorism think-tank and policy group founded in 1995.
- Researched terrorist fundraising and recruitment networks using sources including Lexis-Nexis, the World Wide Web, FOIA requests, Foreign Broadcast Information Service (FBIS), etc. Interviewed alleged terrorist recruiters and terrorist facilitators for Al-Qaida, Hamas, and other groups (including notorious UK-based cleric Abu Hamza Al-Masri and Shaykh Omar Bakri Mohammed).

BOOKS AND PAPERS

- Author - Al-Qaida's Jihad in Europe: The Afghan-Bosnian Network, (Berg Publishers, September 2004)
 - [Dr. Marko Hoare, History Faculty, University of Cambridge and author of How Bosnia Armed]: "Written by a genuine expert in the subject...this is a lucid and informed account of the involvement of the mujahedin in Bosnia, one that lays the myths to rest... This excellent book is essential reading for anyone wishing to understand the truth about an episode of the Bosnian war that is so frequently misrepresented by those with a political motive for doing so."¹
 - [Political Science Quarterly (PSQ)]: "About [Al-Qaida's] operations in Europe, Evan F. Kohlmann has written an illuminating book... Kohlmann is at his best in exhaustively reporting the details of such terrorist episodes. He has compiled prodigious research about the perpetrators and their support networks. Moreover, he never loses sight of the strategy behind the individual attacks... [a] genuine historical analysis."²
 - [Studies in Conflict and Terrorism]: "This book is a pathbreaking piece of research... Kohlmann addresses the issue in unprecedented detail, exploiting a wide variety of available sources to piece together a largely neglected segment of contemporary Bosnian history... [which] provide critical insights into terrorist preferences, motives, and interests... The book... is descriptive and empirically rich."
 - Al-Qaida's Jihad in Europe has consistently been used as a required or recommended course text in numerous undergraduate and graduate courses in North America, Europe, and Australia, including the following courses:
 - (Spring 2005) - "Terrorism, Security, and Intelligence"
 - Course taught by former NSC counterterrorism czar Richard Clarke and former White House Senior Director for Combating Terrorism Rand Beers at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government.³
 - (Fall 2006) - "South Asia, Al Qaeda and the Rise of International Terrorism"
 - Course taught by Peter Bergen at the School of Advanced International Studies at Johns Hopkins University.⁴
 - (Spring 2007) - "Terrorism and Modern Society"
 - Course taught by Dr. Keith Hayward and Professor Frank Furedi at the School of Social Policy, Sociology, and Social Research at the University of Kent (Canterbury campus).⁵
